Subject French and German

A level

- 1) What evidence do you already have that may be used for grading?

Marks for listening and reading comprehension, summaries, translation, grammar exercises, film and literature essays

- 2) What “Chances to shine” are you providing to improve the evidence in 1)?

Please add them to the “Chance to Shine timetable” and describe them here, adding reference/links to revision materials recommended for each shine task.

Students will do a variety of exam-style tasks in translation French-English and English-French, as well as listening and reading comprehension tasks

Past exam papers can be found on AQA website

Students will undertake an oral examination using one photocard followed by presentation and discussion of the Independent Research Project

- 3) When will these be and how will you prepare students for them?

These will all take place in lessons between 19 April and 28 May. Students will be told of the task one week before it takes place and they will undertake practice tasks as preparation.

- 4) How will you inform students and parents about specific “Chance to Shine” opportunities?

We will keep students fully informed through our lessons, or by email if they are absent

- 5) Will the “chance to shine” task be available remotely? If so, where?

Yes. Teams, under Remote Learning

- 6) What form will your portfolio of evidence take and what will it contain?
The 3 best essays from the film and literature section, the “Chance to Shine” tasks and other language work completed this year.
- 7) How will you be checking/moderating grades?
Regular moderation between all of the teachers
- 8) How will you ensure students can see their portfolio of evidence? When will this be?
We will keep students updated and they will see the portfolio in the week beginning 24 May.
